

The Seven Laws Of Mr. Lyle Land

1. The Keeping of the Clock:_____ shall be the Official Keeper of Time for the people of Mr. Lyle Land. This is a position of great responsibility. The Royal Timer is the most valuable possession in Mr. Lyle Land and is to be treated with great respect. The Royal Timer is to be laid upon The Royal Black Velvet. Whenever The Royal Timer is to be moved, it is to be wrapped up in the Royal Black Velvet and carried in the left hand of the Official Keeper of Time. Only the Official Keeper of Time may carry The Royal Timer.
2. The Sign of Allegiance: All of those living in Mr. Lyle Land must wear the really cool Royal Helmet at all times.
3. The Movement: The Official Keeper of Time shall start the Royal Timer. It shall always be set for two minutes. When the Royal Alarm sounds, the Official Keeper of Time shall stop the Royal Timer, wrap the Royal Timer in the Royal Black Velvet, and stand up. All of the other residents of Mr. Lyle Land are to then stand as well. The Official Keeper of Time shall then place the Royal Timer wrapped in the Royal Black Velvet into their left hand and everyone shall then change seats quietly, moving to the seat immediately to their left.
4. The Exercise: When changing seats, each shall walk around their chair two times before being seated. When everyone is seated, the Royal Timer shall be unwrapped and started again by the Official Keeper of Time.
5. The Posture: Each resident of Mr. Lyle Land must always sit upright, with feet together. Shoes must touch each other at the front or the back, but not both front and back.
6. The Gazing: When the Royal Alarm sounds each third time, the Official Keeper of Time shall stop the alarm. The Royal Alarm must not be wrapped in the Royal Black Velvet this time. No changing of seats shall occur. The entire population of Mr. Lyle Land must turn and gaze at Ms. Jeanette. The Gazing shall be a group activity. The entire group shall participate together. No one is to look away during the Gazing. The Official Keeper of Time shall count out loud to 20. There is no set time as to how long this counting shall take. The Official Keeper of Time shall count as fast or as slow as they would like. Upon reaching the count of 20, the entire group shall say "Ah" in unison and they can then go back to their normal activities. The Royal Timer shall then be started again.
7. The Flapping: Whenever Mr. Lyle uses the word "Bible", the residents of Mr. Lyle Land shall flap their arms like a bird one time.
